++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunshine and showers through the day, with a persistent breeze.

Today:
Sunny spells with showers, often heavy and potentially thundery, moving in from the west throughout most of Wednesday. Feeling breezier in all areas, particularly along the coast, leaving it feeling cooler. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers gradually easing for most through the evening, but continuing into the early hours over parts of Cornwall and into the Bristol Channel. Some clear spells elsewhere and feeling fresher. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Thursday:
Starting largely dry, with sunny spells and perhaps the odd shower through the day. Cloud building in the late afternoon, ahead of further rain overnight. Breezy and feeling fresh. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Rain across the region overnight into Friday, with sunshine and showers, locally heavy and thundery following. Sunny spells and scattered showers through the weekend. Often breezy across the region.
